

Welcome

At Bene, we celebrate an uncomplicated way of life that recognises the lifestyle and care requirements of every individual. Our culture is built upon the worldly values of honesty, respect, integrity, family, trust, and time. With more than 40 years of experience, we know just how important it is for your values, culture, spirituality and individuality to be honoured.

Welcome to the warm and inviting home of Bene St Clair. This homely heritage address of just 52 residential care accommodations combines inner-city charm with beautiful nearby western beaches. Conveniently located in the north-western suburb of Woodville, Bene St Clair is best known for lively conversation, laughter and a full social program that encourages residents to get the most out of life. A major shopping complex, local library, recreation complex, cafés, restaurants and public transport are on your doorstep. Plus, major hospitals and other health services, including the Bene Padre Pio Lifestyle and Wellness Centre.

Tailored Care

At Bene, you'll experience quality care underpinned by a transparent and collaborative care philosophy that ensures that the support and services you receive are tailored to meet your individual needs and goals. Bene also provides specialist dementia and palliative care as well as options for respite. Our warm and welcoming care environment is supported by a 24/7 onsite nursing team and a range of multidisciplinary healthcare services. Our holistic approach to wellness means that our highly skilled and compassionate staff work together to enhance your physical, mental, social and spiritual wellbeing, enabling you to enjoy life to the fullest.

Live life to the fullest

Throughout Bene St Clair, there are bright and cheerful communal living and activity areas where you can gather with others, socialise or enjoy time with family and friends. Naturally, there's a strong food culture too, with delicious, nutritionally-balanced meals prepared fresh in Bene's onsite kitchen and dining options to be enjoyed with friends and family. Offering choice and variety, there's an abundance of opportunities for leisure, creative pursuits and lifelong learning, balanced with social outings designed to keep you connected with the community.

Rooms with you in mind

Your personal space is a reflection of the person you've become and the memories you've come to cherish – so make it your own with your most treasured items. In your private sanctuary, you have time to relax and retire to your own favourite pastimes, take visitors or enjoy in-room dining. Bene St Clair offers single as well as double suites that can accommodate couples.

Aged Care

“ When we found Bene St Clair, it seemed too good to be true. Nothing seemed to be too much trouble for the manager and her team. They are very open to suggestions and very well briefed on all the residents. They provide very good, clear two-way communication and, above all, follow up which gives us great peace of mind. It is the people that make organisations great and at Bene St Clair, they have an impressive team of staff. ”
