

Welcome

At Bene, we celebrate an uncomplicated way of life that recognises the lifestyle and care requirements of every individual. Our culture is built upon the worldly values of honesty, respect, integrity, family, trust, and time. With more than 40 years experience, we know just how important it is for your values, culture, spirituality and individuality to be honoured.

Nestled in the enviable foothills of Adelaide, Bene's Italian Village is a leafy safe haven of 163 quality care accommodations. The north-eastern suburb of St Agnes plays host to this idyllic hillside location overlooking tranquil creeks, an abundance of birdlife, landscaped gardens, and stunning seasonal tree-scapes. It's also within a desirable distance to the Tea Tree Plaza shopping complex, cafés and restaurants with easy access via public transport, as well as major hospitals and other health services conveniently located nearby.

Tailored Care

At Bene, you'll experience quality care underpinned by a transparent and collaborative care philosophy that ensures that the support and services you receive are tailored to meet your individual needs and goals. Bene also provides specialist dementia and palliative care as well as options for respite. Our warm and welcoming care environment is supported by a 24/7 onsite nursing team and a range of multidisciplinary healthcare services. Our holistic approach to wellness means that our highly skilled and compassionate staff work together to enhance your physical, mental, social and spiritual wellbeing, enabling you to enjoy life to the fullest.

Special Dementia Care Unit Support

The Italian Village welcomes those living with dementia with our accommodation in a secure memory support environment that promotes resident wellbeing, independence and safety. Skilled and dedicated nurses, carers and therapy staff work closely with families to provide quality care in a positive and nurturing environment with a range of appropriate social and lifestyle programs on offer.

Live life to the fullest

Throughout the home, there are relaxing communal living and activity areas where you can gather with others, socialise or enjoy time with family and friends. For those who wish to come together in prayer, the tranquil multi-faith chapel offers weekly Mass for residents and loved ones and opportunities for quiet reflection. Naturally, there's a strong food culture too, with delicious, nutritionally-balanced meals prepared fresh in Bene's onsite kitchen and private dining options to be enjoyed with friends and family. Offering choice and variety, there's an abundance of opportunities for leisure, creative pursuits and lifelong learning, balanced with social outings designed to keep you connected with the community. As Bene's largest community, the Italian Village also plays host to a number of feasts and events throughout the year.

Rooms with you in mind

Your personal space is a reflection of the person you've become and the memories you've come to cherish – so make it your own with your most treasured items. In your private sanctuary, you have time to relax and retire to your own favourite pastimes, take visitors or enjoy in-room dining. The Italian Village offers single as well as double suites that can accommodate couples.

Italian Village

“ My mother quite regularly tells me how happy she is, and “extra good!” And how thankful she is to me that we were able to make Bene her home. It’s like everyone is “extended family and friends”. They are very well cared for in a safe environment. Gives me peace of mind knowing that they are living out their years being treated with care, respect and being spoilt. We couldn’t be happier with Bene. ”
